

I respectively request that the Consume Bankers Association (CBA) and other such entities be denied the "do not call" exemption under the "established business relationship" rules. I am fully competent to contact the business of my choosing when I want to contact them, and not be solicited by them for additional services that they may want to sell to me.